

Cultural Infiltration and children

Definition of indoctrination: The process of repeating an idea or belief to someone until they accept it without criticism or question.

- We are Indoctrinated by the story we are told—and who tells it.
- The culture builds its narrative based on its agenda/desired outcome
- Difference between:
  - opinion (a view or judgment formed about something, not necessarily based on facts or knowledge)
  - conjecture (an opinion or conclusion formed on the basis of incomplete information; speculation)
  - premise ( a previous statement or proposition from which another is inferred or follows as a conclusion.)
  - Fact ( a thing that is known or proved to be true; the truth about events as opposed to interpretation)
  - Truth (that which is in accordance with fact and reality; a transcendent fundamental or spiritual reality)
  - In order to reorient thinking, must be willing to relay foundations
- Our story should be able to stand up against:
  - erosion: the gradual destruction or diminution of something; to be damaged or removed under pressure
  - invasion: to capture, conquer and occupy another's domain
  - Intrusion: to wrongfully enter upon; seizing or taking possession of the property of another
  - subversion: the undermining of the power and authority of an established system or institution

We Become Like What We Behold:

I John 3:2

II Corinthians 3:18

II Corinthians 4:17-19

Psalms 119:36-37

Colossians 3:10

Psalms 115:4-8

- Hebrews 1:3—We were designed to behold the Father—by seeing Jesus
- Children were supposed to learn who they were by imprinting/face to face/ with parents

We believe—based on what we hear:

Romans 10:17 Faith comes from hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ.

John 8:31-32. Abide in My Word—disciples of Mine—know Truth—Truth will make you free

John 8:43-44 father of lies

Psalms 78:1-12 Passing on the statutes and the stories

What story are we telling?

What is our basis for believing?

Are we a demonstration of our story?